G.O. Store Is Now Open During 9th, 10th Periods; Mr. Hirsch Takes Charge

By Loretta Moore

When was the last time that you bought something at the G.O. store? If you haven't been there lately, and if you haven't been paying careful attention to the announcements over the public address system, you probably don't know that the store is now open at a new time.

The G.O. store, which is located in the rear of Room 122, is now open during the ninth period for all freshmen, and during the tenth period for all other students. The time change was made in February when Mr. Hirsch replaced Mr. Burton as the teacher in charge of the store.

Mr. Hirsch would like all Whitney students to become more familiar with the store's offerings.

Smaller Profit

He explained: "The G.O. store sells many things in addition to the necessary school items. Students buying merchandise at the G.O. store benefit because this store makes a smaller profit than a regular stationery store. All of the merchandise is sold at a reduced price without tax."

The G.O. store is a student-run store. Two seniors, Bessie Porter and Diane Sadlowski, do an efficient job each day while working in the store. Both Bessie and Diane are now completing their third year of merchandising.

Sales Force

These two girls along with a sales force of other girls will help serve the students when the G.O. store starts selling merchandise during the lunch periods.

Next year, the senior merchandising class will be trained to operate the store and they will carry out the various duties of selling, stock inventory, displays and other jobs.

Angela, Stanley Represent Whitney In U.N. Contest

The examination papers of Angela Thompson, 7 Health Conservation, and Stanley Zielinski, 5E11, have been entered in a nation-wide contest sponsored by the American Association for the United Nations.

On March 7, ten Whitney students competed in the three-hour examination contest. Angela and Stanley's papers were selected as the best in the Whitney group.

Six Whitney Seniors Win Scholar Incentive Awards

By Frances Parys

Each of the six Whitney seniors who recently became eligible to receive Scholar Incentive Awards plan to continue with their education following graduation. The award-winning seniors are: Samson Frett, Brenda Ketchum, Janet Mlodzinski, Angela Thompson, Eileen Tomaszewski, and Mary Wieczorek.

Brenda, a Health Careers major, plans to attend either Community College or Queens College to become a registered nurse.

Mr. Goldstein Starts High Attendance Club

By Anita Olozaga

Students with perfect attendance records will be eligible for membership in Whitney's newly-formed Hi-Att club. The idea of forming such a group was originated by Mr. Goldstein, administrative assistant.

The term "Hi-Att" is an abbreviated form of the words "high attendance."

"In School Today; Success Is Yours Tomorrow," is the club's slogan. The slogan, submitted by Jose Rodriguez, 1T4, was chosen from among 74 entries in a school-wide contest.

Mr. Goldstein explained: "The club was formed to encourage students to attend school promptly and regularly. Students who develop such desirable character traits will benefit in preparing for future jobs."

Three types of membership cards will be distributed to club members. White cards will be given to students (Continued on Page 3)

Seniors Prepare For Their Day; Wed., May 8th

By Camille Maggio

Wednesday, May 8, has been set aside for seniors to celebrate Senior Day.

On this day, Whitney students can look forward to an array of color and fun for the seniors plan to come dressed in various costumes. Fairy Tales and Nursery Rhymes will be the theme for this year's Senior Day.

Annual Event

As part of this annual event, selected seniors once again will be permitted to take charge of the senior subject classes. Later in the day, an assembly program for seniors only will be presented in the auditorium.

As previously announced, the Senior Prom will be held at the Sheraton Atlantic hotel on Saturday night, June 1.

Samson, an Electrical Installation major, plans to attend one of the following colleges: Brooklyn Community, Electrical Tech, or Cooper Union Electrical Engineering school. He hopes to further his education in his major field of study.

Angela intends to specialize in biology and chemistry. She plans to attend Hunter College and become a Bio-Chemist.

Mary, Eileen, and Janet are all Secretarial Practice majors. Mary plans to become a Business Education teacher. She plans to attend the Baruch School of the City College of New York.

Both Eileen and Janet plan to study Legal Stenography at a Community College.

Each of the six students are quite active in Whitney's extracurricular program.

Mary is a member of the Honor Society, Mixed Choir, Campus Club, Green and Gold, Newman Club, and Future Teachers' Club.

Eileen and Janet are both members of the Honor Society, Campus Club, Prom Committee, and Newman Club.

Brenda is a member of the Service Squad and Mixed Choir, while Angela is a member of the Honor Society and Green and Gold. Samson is a member of the Campus Club, Honor Society and Service Squad.

The six seniors became eligible for the Scholar Incentive Awards as a result of their scores on the Regents Scholarship Test which was given earlier in the school year.

Boston, Stratford Trips Set

By Julia Santos

This Saturday morning, Whitney students will begin a week-end trip to the famous New England city of Boston. The trip is being sponsored by the Honor Society.

Next Wednesday, May 1, Whitney students will visit Stratford, Connecticut, to see the Shakespearean play "King Lear." Both the Honor-Society sponsored trip and the visit to Stratford have become annual events at Whitney.

Teachers and students will be taken to Stratford by two chartered buses, leaving at 10 a.m. When they arrive at their destination, they will enjoy a picnic prior to seeing the Shakespearean play.

Boston Trip

The trip to Boston will include visits to many Revolutionary War sites, such as Lexington, Concord and Bunker Hill.

The Honor Society began sponsoring trips back in 1961. That year, the group traveled to the nation's capital, Washington, D. C. Last year, the Honor Society sponsored a trip to scenic Niagara Falls.

PRESS RATING

In its second year as a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the Green and Gold received a second-place rating for its work. The rating was announced during the Association's 29th annual convention, which was held during the middle of March.

Ma-yann Gurecki and Eugenia Krapf attended the meetings as the representatives of this school. The meetings were held at Columbia University.

The major highlight at the last day of the convention was the association's annual luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Last year, the Green and Gold received a third place rating from the CSPA.

Join a Club

Since days of old, people have had in them a desire to be with people who have interests similar to theirs. As a result, the idea of forming clubs became popular.

This custom is still popular today, and in our school we have various clubs; clubs that are constantly inviting new members, new faces, new ideas.

Clubs serve to build character, enrich the mind, strengthen the heart. Clubs offer information, trips, and dances.

Many worthwhile clubs have been established at this school. We are sure each student can find at least one club to suit his particular needs.

You are helping to support these clubs by your G.O. membership. Get your money's worth in information and enjoyment by joining one or more of these clubs today.

Alumni Association

As noted above, there are many clubs that a Whitney student can join while attending this high school. There is still another Whitney group that he or she can join after graduation—the Whitney Alumni Association.

This group helps Whitney graduates retain the friendships they made while at school. The dues are only one dollar a year.

We recommend that all graduating seniors join this group. Like your membership dues in the G.O., this too is a worthwhile investment.

An Empty Mailbox

Each day, we eagerly look inside our mailbox only to turn away disappointed. Each day, we find that our mailbox is as empty as it was the day before.

This is most unfortunate, since we can only hope to improve this newspaper from your suggestions. We have stated previously that we will carefully consider any suggestions that we receive. To date, we have received no written suggestions this year.

We would like to learn of your criticisms. We want to hear your ideas. For instance, if you wish to comment on anything in this issue of the newspaper, all you have to do is write a brief letter including your name and advisory section. All letters should be sent to Mr. Rubenstein's office, room 331.

By the way, your letter doesn't necessarily have to be one that objects to something in this newspaper. If you noticed something in this issue that pleased you, we would be glad to hear about that too.

Social-Dance:

PTA Meets Friday

By Nelida Estrada

Parents and teachers have been invited to participate in a social-dance at the next meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association. The social-dance will take place in the gymnasium on Friday evening, April 26, starting at 8 p.m.

Members of the PTA will be treated to a Fashion Show at the group's May meeting, which will be held on Tuesday evening, May 21, in the auditorium.

All of the garments to be presented in the Fashion Show were made by Whitney's Trade Dressmaking students.

The PTA usually meets on the second Tuesday of each month. Membership dues are only one dollar per year.

At the February meeting, the PTA was entertained by a group of dancers that had performed previously at Carnegie Hall. Mrs. Miller, a member of Whitney's custodial staff, danced with this group.

The officers of the PTA include: Mrs. Baron, president; Mrs. Kuzmitsky, vice-president; Mrs. Marcial, treasurer; and Mrs. Marano, secretary. The group's Hospitality Committee includes Mrs. Montonia and Mrs. Villano.

In Memoriam

Thomas Carman, a sophomore majoring in Machine Shop, passed away in January.

Thomas was a very bright student. His average during his freshman year at Whitney was a fine 87.2. He also received Commendation Cards from several of his subject teachers.

Around and About

PITMAN TEACHERS' CONFERENCE: Three members of the Future Teachers' Club—Victoria Czajkowski, Albina Kowalski, and Eugenia Krapf—attended a Pitman Teachers' conference at the Carnegie Institute on February 28. The meeting dealt with the qualifications young people must have in order to attend college. In addition, Pitman pencils and Pitman stenography books were given to those who attended.

FENCING CLUB: Mr. Horner's group managed a 7-5 victory over East New York Vocational and a 4-4 tie against Wingate in practice matches this year.

CAMPUS CLUB: The group visited Columbia University on March 8. Mr. Hanft, the faculty adviser, announced that a Campus Club for juniors will be started soon.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUBS: Both a Girls' Basketball Club and a Girls' Bowling Club were formed recently. Mrs. Burroughs is the faculty adviser of both groups. The basketball Club meets Wednesday after checkout and the bowling group meets Thursday after checkout. All Whitney girls are invited to join.

POETRY WINNERS: Mary Wieczorek won first prize in the school-wide poetry contest. Mary Joan Bynum placed second.

JUNIOR CLASS: Class officers are: Louis Cortez, president; Lorraine Berg, vice-president; and Celia Gianfrancesco, secretary.

On Review

(Editor's Note: Maryann Gurecki and Walter Gurecki attended a special press preview of the movie, "To Kill a Mockingbird." Also, several members of this newspaper staff attended a special press interview for film star Anthony Perkins and a preview of the film, "The Trial." Capsule reactions by the staff members appear below.)

Maryann Gurecki: "'To Kill a Mockingbird' was very interesting and exciting. The acting was good."

Linda Karkosza: "'The Trial' was a very different type of movie. The picture was difficult to understand and you had to pay strict attention to what was going on."

Eugenia Krapf: "The acting in 'The Trial' was superb. However, I felt that the story lacked something."

Ann Veneziano: "'The Trial' was confusing. I myself did not understand the whole picture at first. However, this film kept you in suspense and held your interest."

Rosalie Madaio: "I disliked 'The Trial' very much."

Camille Maggio: "'The Trial' was great. It was very deep and required much concentration."

dent; and Elizabeth Cortez, secretary.

FUTURE TEACHERS' CLUB: This group meets every second and fourth Monday at 8 a.m. Juniors and seniors who feel that they would like to teach some time in the future are eligible to join this club. Mary Wieczorek is the club's chairlady and Kathleen Donohoe is the secretary. Mr. Darrow is the faculty adviser.

BOROUGH DISCUSSION GROUP: Deidra Bizzaro and Patricia Kulikowski attended a borough-wide meeting at Brooklyn Tech on March 7.

JUNIOR RED CROSS: This group is now doing work for the community center located at Humboldt Street and Marcy Avenue.

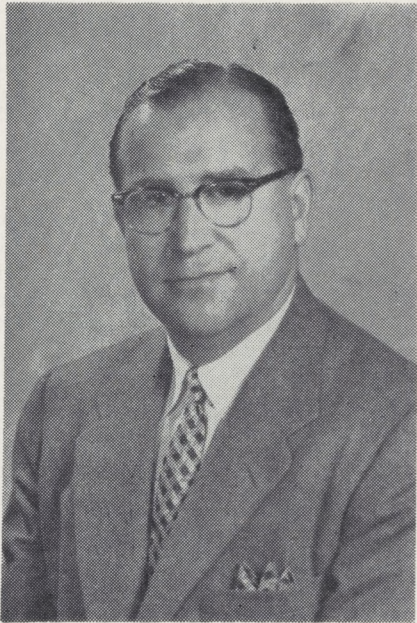

BOOK FAIR: Approximately 550 books were sold at this year's Book Fair.

MUSEUM TRIP: Mr. Albanese will take two Biology Regents classes to the American Museum of Natural History on May 7.

RETAILING CONFERENCE: Three junior girls, Nelida Hodge, Loretta Moore, and Gloria Morales, attended a retailing conference at City College on March 15. At the conference, they learned about career opportunities in the field of retailing. The three girls are all Clerical Practice majors.

SAGA: The officers of the Freshman Honor Society are: Wayne Czajkowski, president; Patty Miller, vice-president; Carmela Paisano, secretary; and Louis Garcia, treasurer.

Principal's Message

Mr. Platt

Dear Students:

Now that Spring is here can the end of the term be far away? It is amazing how quickly the year flies by despite what for some of you seem to be interminably long periods.

This year all students will be required to take and pass Citywide tests in all vocational and related subjects. Since these examinations cover the required course of study and are prepared at the Board of Education, it is very important that every student cover all the work in that course of study. This can be done only if the teacher has the complete cooperation of every student in the class. Anything less than 100% cooperation will not bring success in June.

I hope that you will continue to take advantage of all the educational opportunities at Whitney. It will be up to you to make certain of success this term by doing your job every day of the term.

My best wishes to you.

Cordially yours,
Sidney Platt

Wilfredo Wins Spelling Bee

By Patricia Stabile

For the second year in a row, Wilfredo Perez, 7RM5a, won the school-wide Spelling Bee.

With the entire student body listening in over the public address system on the morning of February 14, Wilfredo defeated Mary Wieczorek, 7SP5a, to win the spelling contest.

Both finalists spelled several difficult words correctly until they were asked to spell the word "millenium." Both Mary and Wilfredo misspelled this word and the contest continued.

After each student spelled a few more words correctly, Mary was asked to spell the word "nitrogenous."

She began, "No—," and immediately realized that she had made an error. However, it was too late. Wilfredo spelled the word correctly and received the first prize gold medal.

Mary received a silver medal for placing second, Linda Panico, 5SP3a, finished in third place and received a bronze medal.

Miss Heiger supervised the entire program.

Russell James

Nelida Estrada

By Carolyn Spampinato

Madeline Guerra, Editor-in-Chief of "The Torch": A senior majoring in Health Careers, Madeline plans to continue her education after graduation by attending nursing school or a college that offers a nursing course.

In addition to her important work on the yearbook, Madeline is also a member of the Prom Committee and the service squad. Her many interests include reading, watching television, listening to the radio, and swimming.

Janie Thornton, winner of last year's Miss Whitney contest: One of Whitney's most active students, Janie is the school's representative at the city-wide G.O. Council meetings. She is also a member of the Cheerleaders, the Girls' Basketball Club, and the Girls' Bowling Club.

A junior majoring in Health Careers, Janie plans to attend nursing school or college after graduation. Her hobbies are drawing and reading.

Russell James, winner of last year's Mr. Whitney contest: A member of the varsity track team, Russell is now in his junior year at Whitney. An Electrical Installation major, Russell also plans to continue his education following graduation. He plans to study electrical engineering.

Nelida Estrada, Features Editor of "The Green and Gold": In addition to her many important duties as an editor of this newspaper, Nelida is also a member of the Bookkeeping Club. She is now in her senior year, majoring in Secretarial Practice.

Her hobbies include collecting pennants from places she visits, taking photographs, and collecting records.

Alumni Take Week-end Trip

Whitney's Alumni Association spent an enjoyable weekend at Pleasant View Lodge in Freehold, New York early in March.

Swimming, skiing, horseback riding, and dancing were some of the activities in which the group participated.

The officers of the Alumni Association are: Bernard Tomczak, president; Leonard Saladino, vice-president; Victoria Terepka, secretary; and Agnes Golowach, treasurer.

Whitney's G.O.:

A Very Busy Organization

By Eugenia Krapf

What happens to the one dollar that I must pay in order to join the G.O.? Exactly what does the G.O. do? These are two questions that many students raise before they join the G.O. Here are some of the answers:

To begin with, the G.O. ran four 100% G.O. membership dances and a St. Valentine's Day dance since the start of the school year.

The G.O. has donated money to such worthy charities as the Cancer Fund and the Heart Fund. The G.O. also sold candy to teachers and students and sent the money to Child-ville and the Cancer Fund.

The G.O. also publishes a weekly notice of all its activities. In addition, the G.O. supports the teams, clubs, and other school activities.

All G.O. activities are very ably supervised by Mrs. Naison, an energetic, enthusiastic supervisor.

Dedicated Teacher

Last year, Mrs. Naison was highly honored when she received a Dedicated Teachers' Award from the Grand Street Boys Foundation. From a list of approximately 40,000 teachers, Mrs. Naison was one of 100 teachers who were honored.

Listed below are still more things that the G.O. has done, is doing, or will be doing:

G.O. representative meetings are conducted monthly. The problems that students face in school are discussed at these meetings. G.O. executive meetings are also held regularly. In addition, the G.O. sends representatives to the city and borough council meetings.

Students and teachers who are ill receive cards from the G.O. Congratulations and sympathy cards are also sent by the G.O.

During the past two months, the G.O. has been collecting clothing for Goodwill Industries. Last month, the G.O. assisted in the sale of tickets for the Whitney production of "You Can't Take It With You."

The remaining two months of the term will also be busy ones for the Whitney G.O. In May, the G.O. plans to run essay and poster contests in connection with Teacher Recognition Day. A photography contest is also planned for the month of May.

The election of next year's G.O. officers and an Election Rally assembly are included on the agenda for the month of June.

Added Service

As an added service this year, the G.O. assisted certain students in preparing their Income Tax returns. Students who worked in 1962 were able to receive assistance in filling out the short forms of their income tax returns.

At present, the G.O. is busy rewriting its Constitution and Code of Ethics. Also, the G.O., with the help of student contributions, continues to support its Foster Child.

Yes, Whitney's G.O. and your G.O. dollar are both quite active.

who attain perfect attendance for three months.

A green card will be given to each student who attains perfect attendance for one school term. Students who attain perfect attendance for one year will receive a gold card.

Those who earn the gold card will be permitted to be part of an honor group that takes an annual trip outside the city. Recipients of green cards will meet to discuss plans for a trip within city limits.

Vocationally Speaking

FASHION SHOW: Whitney's Trade Dressmaking students will present two fashion shows on May 21. The afternoon show will be for the students, while the evening show will be presented to the parents. All of the garments to be used in the show were made by Whitney's Trade Dressmaking students. Mrs. Rudman is supervising the preparations.

BEAUTY CULTURE WINNER: Teresa Rivera, 7BC5, captured a second place award at the Hairdressers' Board of Trade, held at the Sheraton Atlantic Hotel in February. Teresa won a trophy, a cash prize of $50, and a scholarship to attend a private school for Beauty Culture for one week.

BETTY CROCKER AWARD: Brenda Ketchum, 7HC5, is the Whitney winner in the 1963 Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

PRINTING VISIT: Jose Berrios and Wade Bowick, both of 3PR1k, attended the annual Benjamin Franklin meeting of the Printing Teachers' Guild at the New York School of Printing on January 11. The boys toured the school, participated in a quiz about the life of Benjamin Franklin, and received a number of souvenirs related to the printing trade. The boys were invited by Mr. Schor to represent this year's printing class at this annual event.

BOOKKEEPING CLUB: Applications are now being accepted for membership for next year's bookkeeping club. Mr. Fink, the faculty adviser, announced that the group will meet at a different time next year. The Bookkeeping Club will meet on Thursdays after checkout in Room 205, beginning in September. Membership is limited to students who will be SP seniors next year.

FUTURE NURSES' CLUB: Officers of this club include Jeannette Strand, president; Linda Ambrose, vice-president; Sandra Lowe, secretary; and Marian Wright, treasurer. The group meets each Monday at 8 a.m. in Room 402. The group's current project is servicing all the first aid kits for the school.

BEHIND-THE-SCENES DEPARTMENT: The props and scenery for Whitney's production of "You Can't Take It With You," were constructed by the Boys' Trades department.

TRADE DRESSMAKING REPRESENTATIVE: Willa Mae Douglas, 5TD3, represented this school at a luncheon and fashion show, held at the Plaza Hotel on February 12.

BEAUTY CULTURE FIELD TRIP: Two beauty culture classes visited Lady Clairol to observe new methods of styling in Hair Dressing and tinting. Mrs. Rizzo's class visited Lady Clairol during the week of February 4, while Mrs. Shelton's class went there during the week of March 4.

HEALTH CAREERS DAY: Selected Health Career seniors were permitted to participate in Health Careers Day at the State University of New York Downtown Medical Center on April 2.

CIVIL SERVICE TESTS: Seniors in the Business Education department took a state civil service test in March and a federal civil service test in April. Girls passing these tests become eligible for Government jobs.

Whitney 9 to Meet Eastern District Next

Whitney's baseball team will play the first of four home games when it meets Eastern District, Friday at McCarren Park.

Nine players are returning from last year's team, which finished with a 3-5 mark in division play.

The returning lettermen include second baseman Juan Lopez, third baseman Jose Tirado, left fielder John Hines, center fielder Andrew Cisek, and right fielder Stanley Godlewski. These five players appear to be set as regulars at their respective positions.

Infielder Roscoe Williams, outfielders Ben Perez and Gerald Zoldak, and pitcher Juan Lopez are the other returning lettermen.

The remaining members of the pitching staff are Robert Feith, Luis Sanchez, Juan Vargas, and Joseph Martino.

Three Catchers

George Dooley, Miguel Miranda, and Ralph Matthews are the three catchers listed on the team's roster. Hank Feith, an outfielder, is another newcomer to the team.

The remaining infield members of Coach Horner's squad include Frank Murray, Victor Rivera, Neil Rullo, Bruce Levy, and Jose Calderone.

Following the Eastern District game, Whitney will meet Alexander Hamilton on April 29, Brooklyn Automotive on May 6, and Westinghouse on May 9. These three games will also be played at McCarren Park.

Cagers Record Mark of 8-10

By Maryann Gurecki

Although the Whitney cagers didn't fare as well this year as they did last season when they placed second in the division, they did manage to finish with a comparatively impressive 8-10 mark.

While this record was not a winning one, it was a remarkably good one, since most of the members of this year's team had little or no previous varsity experience.

Particularly fine efforts were turned in by seniors Steve Johnson and Tim Harris, juniors Thurmond Outlaw and John Hines, and sophomore Walter Turner.

Close and Exciting

Most of the games this year were close and exciting. Several times, the final outcome wasn't decided until the last minute of play.

Whitney won games by such narrow margins as: 48-46 over East New York Vocational; 60-59 over Alexander Hamilton; 64-60 over Westinghouse; 43-42 over Grady Vocational; and 46-45 over Edison Vocational.

Netmen To Rebuild With New Players

By Linda Karkosza

This is the year of rebuilding for Whitney's tennis team. Such key players as Alfred Andrejko, John Hodge Coakley Pendergrass, and Elisha McKinley were included in the list of Whitney's June, 1962 graduating class.

The nucleus for this year's team will include the following lettermen: Wally Gonzalez, Walter Solgan, Louis Maldonado, Bernard Whindleton, Daniel Doscher, and Anthony McMananon.

Coach Abraham's tennis squad will play its home matches at McCarren Park.

Bowling Champ

Whitney's Benny Amadeo finished in first place in the individual borough bowling competition, February 6, at the Colony lanes. Amadeo, a freshman, topped all other competitors with a score of 618.

Joe Radzicki, captain of the Whitney bowling team, finished fourth with a score of 599.

Keglers Finish 3rd In City Play-Offs

Of the 80 high schools in New York City that competed for the Public School Athletic League's bowling crown, Whitney's team finished in third place.

With a superb effort, Coach Gruber's bowling team, champions of Brooklyn, toppled Bayside, champions of Queens, 2-1, on January 26, to finish third in the city-wide play-offs.

Whitney battled from behind to win this key match. Joe Radzicki, Patrick McCann, Jerry Zoldak, and Benny Amadeo all turned in fine scores in the third and deciding game, which Whitney won, 766-613.

"I'm so proud of these boys," Coach Gruber said. Each member of the Whitney team received a trophy for winning the borough title and a medal for finishing third in the city-wide play-offs.

Whitney won the borough title by beating Lincoln on January 21, 2-1. Coach Gruber's squad won the first game of this match, 701-671, as McCann tallied 202. Whitney then took the second game, 677-669, with Amadeo and Zoldak tallying 179 and 178, respectively.

"Amadeo successfully converted a seemingly impossible 7-9-10 split in the second game," Coach Gruber said. "That was the turning point in the match."

Actually, Whitney almost lost any chance of getting to the borough finals back on December 7. On this day, Coach Gruber's squad met Brooklyn Tech, winners of the division title last year.

Both teams went into the match tied for first place in the division with identical marks of 7-1. Whitney dropped the first game, 716-667, even though McCann scored 211 in this game.

Coach Gruber's team battled back and won the second game, 738-722. Radzicki was the high point man with 200.

In the third and deciding game, a foul was called against Amadeo for stepping over the line. Actually, Amadeo had not stepped over the line. Instead, his ball hit the lane before the line of entry, but he himself did not step over the line. Whitney protested the foul call.

As it turned out, the foul proved to be the deciding factor in the match. If the foul had been allowed, Brooklyn Tech would have won the match.

The foul call took on much more importance when both Brooklyn Tech and Whitney won all of their remaining matches. Thus, the foul call decided the division championship.

After a delay of more than one month, the rules committee approved Whitney's protest and ruled that the match be re-played. When Brooklyn Tech refused to re-play the match, they forfeited the match, and Whitney was declared the winner of the division title.

Actually, the title was not won simply by a decision of the rules committee. It was won after many a difficult tussle in a division that was recognized as one of the strongest in the city.

Whitney had to beat not only Brooklyn Tech, but Jefferson, Boys, Brooklyn Automotive, Bushwick, and East New York Vocational as well.

Following its victory over Lincoln, Whitney lost a close and exciting match to Stuyvesant, 3-0, on January 22. Coach Gruber's forces dropped the first game by only two pins, 738-736. Whitney lost the second game by just four pins, 682-678.

Stuyvesant then went on to win the city championship in its next match.

Track Team To Face John Jay In First Outdoor Meet Monday at McCarren Park

Whitney's track team will open its outdoor season with a meet against John Jay next Monday, April 29, at McCarren Park.

Coach Makofsky's squad will also compete at McCarren Park against the following schools: Brooklyn Automotive, May 2; Brooklyn Tech, May 6; Westinghouse, May 9; and Eastern District, May 13. (Editor's note: The dates of the other meets were not available when this paper went to press.)
